

Guanghua PhD Program

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

PhD Program

This full-time program is designed for candidates with outstanding intellectual ability and a strong commitment to research who aim to work in a university setting or at an academic or research-focused institution. Graduates will be awarded a PhD Degree in either Economics or Management Science, depending on their major. The program can be completed entirely in English, with English serving as the medium of instruction for required coursework and the students' dissertation.

Research Master Program (Pre-doctoral Program)

Individuals who possess a Bachelor's degree but do not possess a Master's degree may seek admission to one of Guanghua's PhD programs by applying to the Research Master Program (Pre-doctoral Program). This is the required pathway for individuals who possess only an undergraduate degree to apply for a PhD program at Guanghua.

Duration of Program

Master's Degree Holders: Four years

Bachelor's Degree Holders: Five years

Curriculum

Required
Coursework

Additional Coursework

Entry Requirements

Non-native English applicants without English-taught degrees must prove English proficiency.

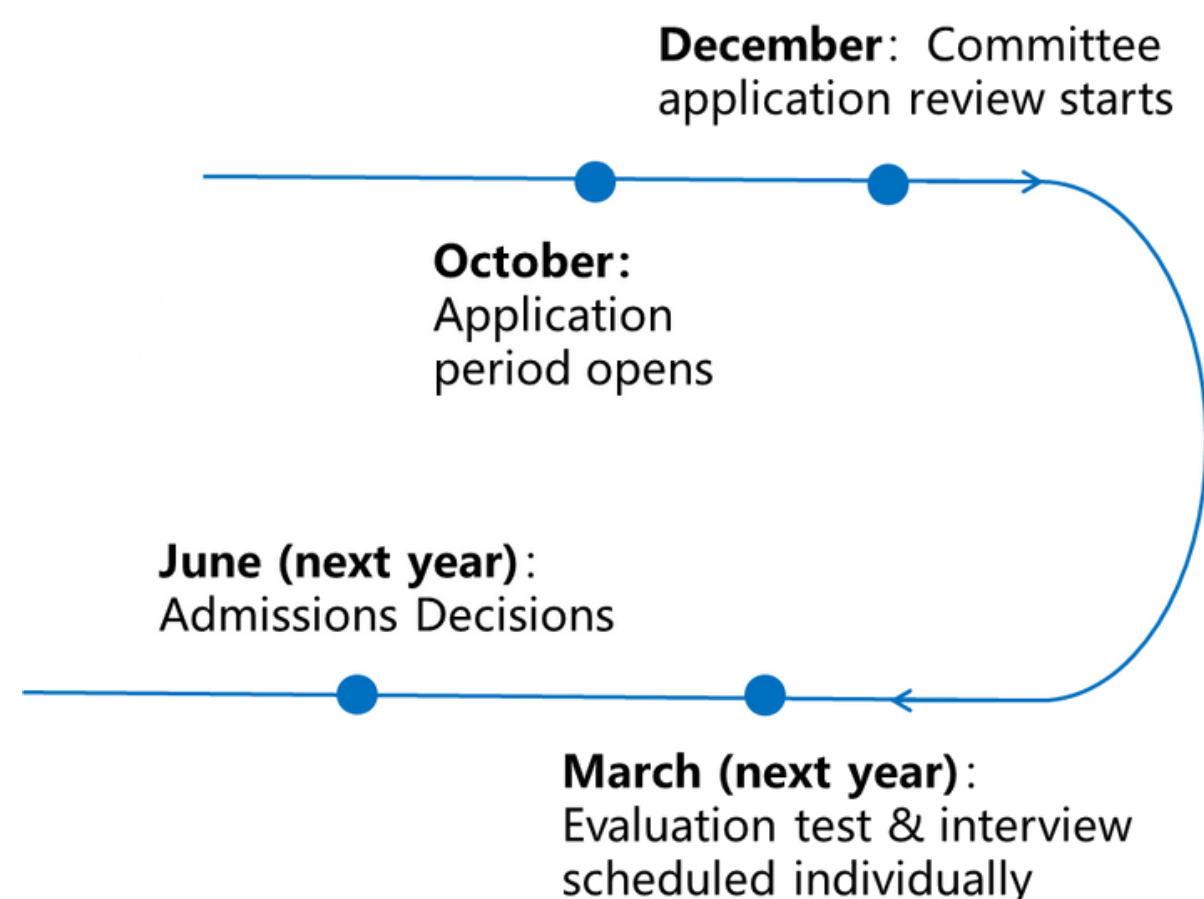

Outstanding academic record, strong references, a clear interest in pursuing an academic career.

Students are welcome to submit GRE, GMAT, or other standardized test scores in support of their application.

How to apply?

The above timeline is subject to further adjustment.

Financial Support

- ✓ Entrance Scholarships (including tuition fees, accommodation, a living stipend, and health insurance)
- ✓ Supplementary Scholarships
- ✓ Teaching and Research Assistantships
- ✓ Support for Overseas Research & Visiting Scholar Programs
- ✓ Incentives for Publications